2008 JOHN BUNYAN THEOLOGY AND CHURCH HISTORY CONFERENCE

JBT&CHC

The John Bunyan Theology and Church History Conference series has as its purpose to link Christian theology with Christian church history. Christianity has a historical foundation, and there is profound interaction between its doctrine and its history. The conference seeks to affirm this linkage by exploring significant doctrines of the church and the historical movements that God used to shape it.

The conference is named after John Bunyan, the great Puritan Baptist of the 17th century—author of the Christian classic Pilgrim's Progress, and gifted preacher and pastor, who spent 12 years of his adult life in prison because he refused to stop preaching the pure gospel message.

The conference series assembles accomplished scholars, pastors, historians, and theologians of our day to re-educate a Christian church that is today too far removed from its historic orthodox faith.

2008 JBT&CHC

This year's conference focuses on the ancient heresies of the Christian church that have reappeared today disguised with new names. These old "re-packaged" heresies still wreak their destructiveness on the unsuspecting and uninformed. We are indeed privileged to have Dr. James White, of Alpha and Omega Ministries, to call to our attention to these modern "wolves in sheep's clothing."
